Arrival of the Arabians.

The Bombardment of Sevastopol Commenced.

New York, Nov. 3.

Steampship Arabia arrived this A. M.

The bombardment of Sevastopol commenced on the 13th Oct.

Omeara has gone to the Crimea.

Menshikoff had been partially reinforced.

The Journal of St. Petersburg of the 14th contains a despatch from Vienna stating that the commissioners of the Western powers and of Austria and Turkey had met at Constantinople to arrange the question of the Protectionate, on the basis of the proposals made by the Austrian Cabinet.

It is said that Gen. Canrobert has notified the French Government that the position of the Allies is impregnable, being defended by 80,000 men and 200 guns, and that it could easily hold against 200,000 Russians.

Constantinople letters of the 12th say that 3,000 of the foreign legions and 4,000 of the Turks had just left for the Crimea.

Menshikoff who could not maintain his position at Batchelder, had sent his army to Sevastopol and gone himself to Kerch. A Russian corps of 15,000 men was posted on the Iberian shore Sevastopol and the opening of great operations was daily expected.

In consequence of correspondence found among Menshikoff's effects when his carriage was captured, after the battle of the Alma, several important arrests have been made at Voronezh.

Two small British steamers have been ordered to the sea of Azoff, to bombard the town of Kerch.

Lord Stratford de Redcliffe, British Minister of Constantine, has succeeded in procuring a Decree to express the route of Corsica and Georgia slaves.

A large portion of the French battle fleet had returned to Cherbourg. A rumor was current that the Danish Government would probably permit the British fleet to winter at Kiel.

Wheat had advanced 10. Corn 24. Flour had also advanced. Western Corn 49c. Ohio 42c.

The Search for the Arctic's Survivors.

Hanover, Nov. 3.

The Mail Steamer from New England has just arrived here. The yacht Hawke which was sent in search of the missing boats of the Arctic had returned without having discovered any of the survivors, and those on board reported that the boats have been picked up by outward bound vessels. The body of a female dressed in light-colored clothes was seen floating but it could not be picked up as the sea was very high at the time.

Reciprocity.

Sr. Jones, N. R., Nov. 3.

Yesterday in the House of Assembly an act was passed admitting foreign bondholders, settled debts, mohasses and oats, duty free. The ratifying the Reciprocity Treaty was also passed.

New York News.

New York, Nov. 4.

Characteristic Conduct of an Alderman.

New York, Nov. 4.

One of the candidates for Alderman in the city, John B. Holmes, in a disturbance last night, stabbed a Police officer, named Gurney, in the side, inflicting a dangerous wound, and made a desperate plunge at another officer, but he was finally secured and locked up.

Jacob Westervelt, present Mayor of New York, failed today. His liabilities are very heavy.

It is stated on the authority of a dispatch from New Orleans, that a prominent gubernatorial candidate, in the coming election of New York, has promised to pardon Dr. Graham immediately, if he is elected Governor.

The Arctic's Boats.

Chicago, Nov. 3d.

A passenger train which left here Wednesday night, was thrown from the track by a breaking of a axle. The two forward cars were thrown upon the top of the engine, and the steam escaping was drawn with a tremendous force through the dense mass of human beings packed closely among the wrecks of the cars. At least 40 of the passengers were seriously wounded, of whom 12 will die within twenty-four hours. There are no eastern names given.

The Chicago Rail Road Accident.

New York, Nov. 6.

Eight more deaths have occurred on the wounded by the accident on the Chicago Rail road. Twenty-five others still lie dangerously wounded at Joliet.

Cass and the South.

A meeting at Detroit on Saturday Gen. Cass made a speech in reply to the Richmond Inquirer, saying that he desired nothing from the South, and expected nothing from them but justice.

Kansas Emigrants Returning.

Advices from Washington state that a large number of eastern emigrants to Kansas are returning home.

Serize of a Slave.

A letter from Havanna states that the American southerner Purvis has been seized after finding a cargo of slaves at Bahia.

Governor Seymour of New York.

Albany, Nov. 6.

Gov. Seymour has authorized the Albany Atoms to pronounce the fact that he agreed to pardon Dr. Graham, in case he was elected Governor, to be entirely and unequivocally false.

Mysterious Murders.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 6.

Our city police are investigating a mysterious series of murders in the upper part of the city. A woman has been arrested, and charged with the murder of two of her own illegitimate children. An Irishman has also been arrested, as implicated in the same affair. The murders occurred some time since, and the bodies have not as yet been found.

New York State Election.

New York, Nov. 8.

The election in New York passed off quietly except at Williamsburg, where a serious affray occurred. A party of thirteen armed with barrel staves took possession of one of the polls. In the melee 1 man was shot dead and 2 others wounded seriously, three badly.

The returns are incomplete but indicate that Gov. Seymour, Soft, has a majority and that Barker, Know Nothing, is elected Mayor. The result in the State is close.

From present appearances, Seymour has the best chance. The total vote of Albany is as follows: Seymour, 362,000; Ulster, 24,711; Clark, 23,331; Bronson, about 250.

Albion, Nov. 7th, p. M.

In the towns of Clarendon, Murray, Kemal, Barry, Haines and Carlton, Ulster 137, 171, Clark, 5,876; Seymour, 411, Bronson 105. Monroe Co. appears to have given Ulman a maj. and Carpenter, whig, is beaten for Congress, in the 19th Dist. by Williams, Soft and K.N. Ontario Co. gives a heavy maj. for Ulman. Stephen Co. as far as heard from gives Ulman a considerable maj.—Syracuse city gives Seymour 1366, Clark 10,5; Ulster 73, Bronson 100. Jefferson Co. as far as heard from gives Clark a small and good major—Seymour and bad liquor, or Clark and no liquor at all.
